

Spirituality in Writing

Through Writing at Heartwood, we enable spiritual development through the creativity and use of imagination. Writing allows us to process, explore and reflect on our own beliefs and perspective on life. Writing enables us to express emotions and sentiments. We value great works, experience the awe and wonder in literature and appreciate the beauty in language.

